DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-20 and 25-28, drawn to an optical connection structure.

Group II, claim(s) 21 and 22, drawn to a first optical connection method.

Group III, claim(s) 23, drawn to a second optical connection method.

Group IV, claim(s) 24, drawn to a third optical connection method.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I, II, III, and IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Regarding Group I, reference JP 2001-124958 (herein referenced as D1) discloses an optical connection structure characterized by a solid viscous connection member (2) having refractive-index matching property being adheringly disposed in a single layer state between the end faces of mutually opposing optical transmission media (1 and 5) as shown in the figures.

Therefore, claim 1 lacks novelty. D1 discloses many of the elements of claims dependent upon claim 1. However, D1 does not include the detailed structure of the connection such as that described in dependent claim 10. After cursory review of the claimed invention and the reference, claim 10 seems to describe the special technical feature of claim 1.

Regarding Group II, claim 21 includes the special technical feature of using a method wherein the end face of one optical transmission media is moved into the sheet-shaped viscous connection member to adhere the medium to the viscous member.

Regarding Group III, claim 23 includes the special technical feature of using a method wherein sheet shape viscous member is moved relative to the optical medium.

Art Unit: 2883

Regarding Group IV, claim 21 includes the special technical feature of using a method wherein the two transmission media are both moved so as to sandwich the viscous connection member.

As can be seen from the descriptions above, each invention has a unique and distinct special technical feature.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
